Falcons, many of you are familiar with our next word. You may face it at school, work, or home - you may face it just about anywhere. It takes bravery to face our word of the week: Adversity. Adversity refers to the challenges, difficulties, and misfortunes you might face during your life. Here it is in a sentence:

"Although you may experience adversity in your life, it is important to muster courage so you can meet those challenges head-on."
