Congratulations to this week's Falcons of the week - Ryan Link, Jayden Hall, Peter Hennard, Megan Belanger

Attention all students taking Kirtland classes next fall: Please turn your signed Dual Enrollment paperwork into your counselor. Registration for your Kirtland classes requires those papers, and the sooner you turn them in, the better chance you have of getting the courses you want. Thanks!

Falcons, sometimes having a hint about the future can get us through tough times. If we watch trends and habits of the past, it can allow us to persevere against the most difficult challenges. This word is all about looking towards the future. Our word of the week is Prognosticate. To prognosticate is to foretell, forecast, predict, or prophetise. Here it is in sentence: Mr. Pilarski used past attendance records to prognosticate that there would be a drop in tardiness after spring break. Everyone comes back refreshed and ready to work. See the display case outside the main office for more about our word of the week.
